MONDAY EVENING. FOV. 11 1901.

Don't Be Afraid of Work, One thing that keeps young men down is their fear of work. They aim to find genteel occupations, so they can dress well, not soil their clothes and handle things with the tips of their fingers. They do not like to get their shoulders under the wheel, and they prefer to give orders to others or figure as masters and let some one else do the drudgery. There is no doubt that indolence and laziness are the chief obstacles to success.

When we see a boy who has just secured a position take hold of everything with both hands and "jump right into his work" as if he meant to succeed, we have confidence that he will prosper. But if he stands around and asks questions when told to do anything; if he tells you that this or that belongs to some other boy to do, for it is not his work; if he does not try to carry out his orders in the correct way; if he wants a thousand explanations when asked to run an errand and makes his employer think that he could have done the whole thing himself, one feels like discharging such a boy on the spot, for he is con-vinced that he was not cut out for success. That boy will be cursed with mediocrity or will be a failure. There is no place in this century for the lazy man. He will be pushed to the wall.—

Shoulder Protection.

In the steel curb shoulder protection which now forms a part of the equipment of almost all cavalry the troops have a permanent reminder of one of the most exciting adventures which befell Sir George Luck, the lieutenant general commanding the Bengal forces.

During the Afghan operations of 1878 to 1880 he took his regiment, the Fifteenth hussars, up to Kandahar and encountered at Takht-I-Pul a strong body of hillmen led by Afghan sowars, who made things pretty warm for him for a few minutes. In the hand to hand fighting he became engaged with a gi-gantic Pathan, who broke down his guard and would have cloven him from shoulder to belt but that his wife had sewed on his shoulders in the lining of his tunic a couple of steel curb chains, one of which broke the force of the

The incident so impressed the mili-

an who was not blessed with many virtues, but who possessed a very va-ried assortment of vices. He took the latter as a text for a sermon and spoke to her at considerable length upon the subject, concluding with some extracts from one of St. Paul's epistles which he felt to be apropos.

She didn't speak for several minutes after he had finished, and he thought that he had made an impression upon her at last. He was mistaken, how-ever, for she suddenly turned round with the remark: "Humph! That's just where Paul and I have differed these ten years."

Her Prayer. The Buffalo News tells a story of a four-year-old girl who was spending a night away from home. At bedtime she knelt at her hostess' knees to say her prayers, expecting the usual prompt Finding Mrs. B. unable to help her out, she concluded thus: "Please, God, 'scuse me; I can't remember my prayers, and I'm staying with a lady that don't know any."

Pushing the Perambulator. Mrs. Haskins-I saw your husband or the Pu today in a bleycle suit. I didn't think bought of you'd let him ride.

Mrs. Strongmind-My dear, that was not a bicycle suit, although it might properly be called a "wheeling suit." You see, I want him to be appropriate ly garbed when he takes baby for an airing.-Philadelphia Press.

A Last Joke.

John D. Long, in the Massachusetts campaign of 1878, was making his first run for governor against General Ben Butler, who had captured the Democratic nomination, and Judge Joslah G. Abbott, who was the candidate of the old line Democratic audience and, after praising a speech for Abbott before a big Democratic audience and, after praising a speech for Abbott before a big Democratic audience and, after praising he as statesman, asked sarcastically, "And now, who is this John L-L-Long?" No one answering, he proceeded: "They say he has made a translation of the original."
